LEGISLATIVE PLATFORM

"We, the Democratic nominees for the General Assembly of Tennessee, do declare our adherence to the fundamental and progressive principles of social, economic and industrial justice, which constitute the soul of democracy. "We approve the national and state Democratic platforms and pledge our support to the nominees.

"We believe that the present form of City Government is best for Memphis, and oppose any radical changes in the city charter. "The Democratic party is founded upon the idea that all authorits comes from the people, and from its inception has advocated the popular election of the members of the judiciary, as well as the executive and legislative branches of the government; as loyal supporters of this idea, we favor the popular election of the city judge of Memphis, rather than his appointment by the city commission.

"Recognizing and appreciating the efficiency and loyalty of the present teaching body in our city and county schools, we favor adequate compensation and a pension law for school teachers.

"We favor increased salaries, disability and old age pensions for firemen and policemen.

"We favor a more liberal allowance of time in which to pay city taxes. "We favor the continued extension and upkeep of our county highways and increased construction and closer supervision by the state highway department.

'We favor a more equitable apportionment of the state automobile tax to the counties from which it originates. 'We advocate better facilities to accomplish complete and proper registration of voters, and to enable voters more conveniently to exercise the franchise on election days. "In the matter of industrial relationships, we declare for a square deal for the employer, the employe and the public, and believe in an appeal to reason to bring about a better understanding between capital and labor, rather than the enactment of radical legislation to this end. "We favor the repeal of the public utilities law at the earliest possible moment, and will do everything in our power to remove it from the statute books of Tennessee. "We favor every readjustment of the city's boundary lines that will correct any discriminations against or in favor of anyone.

"Recognizing the deficiencies of the present workmen's compensation act, we favor its strengthening by amendment.

We favor the enactment of legislation that will safeguard women and children employed in industrial pursuits,

"We pledge ourselves to support every law necessary to the complete enfranchisement of women.

"When elected we pledge ourselves to act solely upon conviction and without bias or domination of any sort; to devote ourselves without reserve to the most advantageous solution of all questions affecting our districts and to use our best efforts and influence for those measures which will
